SUBJECT LINE: Early Adopters Request for Letters of Intent and Two Opportunities to Participate

Dear Feedback Network Member,

New Document

The Healthier Washington webpage, Integrated Physical and Behavioral Health Care, has been updated to reflect a new document: Request for Letters of Intent to Pursue Fully-Integrated Physical and Behavioral Health Care by April 2016 (i.e. Early Adopter). This is an opportunity for Regional Service Areas (RSAs) that wish to pursue full integration of chemical dependency services, mental health services and physical health services by April 2016 to officially declare their intent. Additionally, a draft approach to the role of counties and Accountable Communities of Health (ACHs) in in monitoring, engaging and partnering in transformation has also been posted. Please visit http://www.hca.wa.gov/hw/Pages/integrated\_purchasing.aspx for more information.

Performance Measures Coordinating Committee Meeting

Next Wednesday, December 17, is the final meeting of the Performance Measures Coordinating Committee (PMCC). This is a chance for the PMCC to review the comments submitted through the public review process and the individual workgroup responses to the public comments. Public participation is welcome, either in person or via webinar.

NOTE: Physical location is different from the previous meetings!

Date: Wednesday, December 17, 1:00 – 4:00 pm

Physical address: King County Chinook Building, 401 5th Ave, Seattle, WA

ACH Webinar

REMINDER! There will be an Accountable Community of Health informational webinar today, December 10. This is an opportunity for those across the state to learn about this important initiative and ask questions of Chase Napier, the Accountable Community of Health Project Manager, and communities engaged in the planning process.

Date: Today! Wednesday, December 10, 2:30 – 4:00 pm

Webinar registration link: <https://www2.gotomeeting.com/register/698812466>

Thank you for your interest in a Healthier Washington and for helping make Washington a healthy place to live, work, and play!
